VOL. XX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1892.

NO. 16

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Common Pleas Court closed last Saturday evening after two weeks' work.

—The county court was in session Monday and Tuesday settling with the sheriff.

—C. W. Lester is at Somerset attending court. W. B. Bowman spent last week at Point Burnside.

—A heavy wind and hail storm swept over the eastern portion of the county Monday evening, doing considerable damage. The wind blew Mrs. Perkins' barn down.

—Miss Davis, of the academy, is sick with pneumonia. Dr. Welsh, of Louisville, is holding a protracted meeting at the M. E. Church. Col. C. B. Clay and J. A. Butler, of the A. & C. College, Lexington, were here Saturday looking for a place for the regular summer encampment.

—The case of the Whitley county court against the L. & N., was tried last Thursday and resulted in a verdict of $10,000 in favor of the county. The case arose out of the railroad digging a cut below the county road and causing it to slip down so badly it is impossible to pass. The case will be appealed. O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, acted as special judge, Judge Tinsley having been employed in the case before he became judge.

—O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, B. A. Chappelle, of Shepherdsville, Col. Geo. Colbert and W. R. Ramsey, of London, were here attending court. Mr. Alvy, of Jellico, was here last Thursday fishing. Hon. D. G. Colson, of Middlesboro, was here looking up his congressional interests last Saturday. H. C. King, who has been sick with pneumonia, is improving. John DeLong, who has been in the drug store of Hugely & Jamison, has returned to his home, Ironton, Ohio.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—A New York paper said that the Easter bonnet was Queen of Fifth Avenue and the churches on Sunday last. A plug hat was probably the king.

—The New York Press publishes a daily diary showing what Senator Hill, of New York, has been doing since his election to the Senate of the United States. From Jan. 7, when he took the oath of office, to April 11, a period of over three months, he has been in his seat only five days. He does not seem to have been as attentive to his duties as some of our Kentucky law makers.

—Mrs. Alice J. Shaw will give a concert in New York on the 22d inst., in which she is to be assisted by several soprano singers and an orchestra of 40. Mrs. Shaw is said to be a remarkable whistler, having whistled to large audiences in London. Whether she is familiar with the old couplet that

"Whistling girls and crowing hens, Always come to bad ends," we are not informed.

—A Roman lady died recently and left the whole of her fortune to the editor, whose paper had been so pleasant to her. Now, if some of the wealthy readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL would remember this when they conclude to "shuffle off this mortal coil," and leave to Editor Walton a goodly share of their worldly possessions for the pleasure he has given them for so long a period, they will be doing a good deed and go hence with the blessed assurance that they have not lived in vain and that their benefactions will not be forgotten. Don't all die at once.

—Five dollars a day and roast beef is what the Kentucky Commissioners are to get for every day's work they actually render, not to exceed $600 for the remainder of 1892 and $1,200 for 1893. To make Kentucky's display compare favorably with any of the States of the great West, who have millions at their disposal, will require extraordinary vigilance and considerable business experience upon the part of the commissioners. They have a job on their hands that will put them to their wits if they succeed in making the exhibit one of which Kentuckians who visit the exposition will feel proud.

—That Dr. Appleman's skill and ability are appreciated by our people is best shown by his increased patronage. He takes pleasure in referring to those under his care as to the effects of his treatment and the good he is doing. He is a specialist of note and worthy of your patronage. Consult him on his next visit, Tuesday, April 26.

—Granite is the lowest rock in the earth's crust. It is the bed rock of the world. It shows no evidence of animal or vegetable life. It is from two to 10 times as thick as the united thickness of all the other rocks. It is the parent rock from which all other rocks have been directly or indirectly derived.

—The C. & O. has contracted for 60 miles of double track in the vicinity of Hinton, W. Va. At this point 72 trains pass every day. The C. & O. will soon have 300 miles of double track in operation.

DANVILLE.

—Later reports from the lightning-struck residence of Mrs. Johnstone indicate that the foundation was also considerably injured.

—Messrs. Jake Hugely and El Hutchings will soon form a partnership for extensive handling of trotting horses, some 40 or 50 at a time.

—The remains of Mrs. Peyton, daughter of George Taylor, who died, in Cincinnati, were brought here Wednesday and interred in the colored cemetery.

—Mr. Lynn Hudson was called to New Orleans Wednesday by the illness of his brother, Mr. A. B. Hudson. Mr. Thos. H. Fox, editor of the Democrat, was in Somerset this week on business connected with his paper.

—Dr. Howard Kincaid, a native of Boyle county, who has practiced his profession for several years in Washington City, is here on a visit to relatives and may conclude to locate in Danville. He is a grand son of Hon. John Kincaid, once a distinguished citizen and lawyer of Stanford.

—The city council met Tuesday night and passed a stock law, to take effect May 20, which makes it unlawful for cows, hogs and other stock to run at large. Dogs are to be taxed $1 and sluts $2, and all dogs and sluts on which taxes have been paid must wear tags or labels, showing such to be the case.

—Circuit Clerk R. S. Nichols is making up the record for the second time in the case of Pump Bates vs. the Commonwealth. The first time Pump was tried for killing George Wells he was given 21 years. The case being reversed, on the second trial he received a life sentence. Bates' attorneys are confident of another reversal.

—The committee of the General assembly on charitable institutions visited the D. & D. Institute Thursday. This committee is composed of the following named gentlemen: E. O. Taylor, C. C. Spalding, Dr. James, Dr. Johnson, Dr. Mathers, Mr. Darham, M. D. McInerney, Mr. Bass, Mr. Harber, George H. Alexander, G. W. Yates, Dr. Roberts, Toney Carroll.

—A man giving the name of Wm. Kirklider, loaded up with conversation water, Monday night, and was locked up. Tuesday morning he was fined $10 and costs. On motion the issuance of a capias was deferred 24 hours to give Mr. K. an opportunity to leave town. He claims to be a bridge builder and that he is related to respectable people in the west end of the county.

—John Baughman, colored, who was shot in the head and clubbed over the head with the musket with which he was shot, by a negro named Ellis, at a point between Stanford and Crab Orchard, some 12 or 14 years ago, has been acting very queerly of late. He imagines he has two souls and that one of them leaves him sometimes and then comes back. He fired a pistol, some say, at his wife, Wednesday evening, and was brought to town and locked up by Chief Silliman. His mental condition will be looked into by Judge McFerran Friday morning.

—Aunt Fannie Davis, a colored woman, died at the residence of Mr. R. Q. Davis, this county, Monday night, aged between 105 and 106 years. She was born in Madison county, her mother belonging to Mr. Davis' father. Upon the death of that great man in 1835 she became the property of Mr. R. Q. Davis and has lived in the family ever since. She was a neat seamstress and in the latter years of her life pieced and quilted many quilts, which she presented to her friends. Mr. Davis, who was warmly attached to her, had her buried on his farm in the best style, Tuesday evening on the family lot.

—Lightning cut queer capers Wednesday morning at 6:30 o'clock when it struck the residence of Mrs. Johnstone, on Main street, the building built by her son, Dr. A. W. Johnstone for a sanitarium. The very heavy stone steps in front were moved out of place and a hole in the ground several feet deep made by the side of them. In the southeast room upstairs a stationary washstand was torn loose from the wall and upset and various articles in the room broken. In the room on the first floor just below the last one named about the same amount of and similar damage was done; and outside at the southeast corner, where the lightning entered the ground, another large hole was made.

—Whereabouts of Former Danville and Boyle County People:—W. H. Lucas, R. W. Dunlap, Felix G. Fox, Jas. B. Welsh, James F. Zimmerman, Henry Evans, John Jett, Kansas City, Mo.; J. H. Lucas, Allie Stewart, James Linney, Jo S. Linney, Oceola, Mo.; Jos. McJames, John F. Warren, Coffeyville, Kas.; J. C. Yeiser, Austin, Texas; D. H. Yeiser, Abeline, Texas; Lewis Mock, J. R. Holmes, Bonham, Texas; Allan Collins, Sherman, Texas; Charles R. Beatty, F. De Gissac, Waco, Texas; Dr. Jo Meyer, Honey Grove, Texas; A. J. Ayres, San Diego, Duval county, Texas; W. R. Orrear, San Antonio, Texas; George D. Fisher, St. Louis, Mo.; A. W. Burbank, C. W. Metcalf, George Metcalf, Atlanta, Ga.; George C. Spears, Athens, Ga.; W. T. Read, Gallatin, Tenn.; J. Wesley Durham, Memphis, Tenn.; Beverly D. Williams, Little Rock, Ark.; Mark Chiles, Louis Cohn, John Builder, Middlesboro; Obediah Garnet, Patterson, N. J.; Rev. W. J. McKnight, New Brunswick, N. J.; N. J., James and Boyle Larimer, Topeka, Kansas; E. S. Messick, Chicago, Ill.; W. H. Banford, Chicago, Ill.; S. P. Barbee, George Dinmitt, Denver, Col.; Ed S. Welsh, Leadville, Col.; R. W. McFerran, Baton Rouge, La.; Ed Holland, Orlando, Fla.; Joseph H. Davis, Memphis, Tenn.; S. G. Waggoner, Cincinnati; W. L. and Lucien Waggoner, Frankfort; Theo. Farrand, Lebanon; W. La Rue Thomas, Maysville; Drs. L. S. McMurry and F. W. Samuel, James W. Guest, S. W. Cloyd, John L. Zimmerman, Wm. Ayres, F. F. Fox, James C. Nichols, Louisville; M. J. Durham, Sam and Fred Lazarus, John Wehl, W. B. Thomas, Lexington; I. D. McGoodwin, Wm. Turner, Bowling Green; E. S. Lee, Covington; Dr. I. S. Warren, S. M. Boone, Somerset.

—Messrs. S. G. Boyle, B. G. Boyle, Boyle Nichols, Ralph Elting, P. F. Jones and G. T. Helm, of this place, attended the meeting at Harrodsburg, Wednesday, for the purpose of forming a base ball league. Another meeting to complete arrangements will be held here on the 27th inst. Six towns will probably be represented in the league, viz. Danville, Stanford, Harrodsburg, Nicholasville, Versailles and Shelbyville. Mr. B. G. Boyle will, it is said, manage the Danvilles.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Ninety-two colored converts were baptized at Georgetown Sunday at an average rate of 20 seconds to the man.

—Rev. G. W. McCready has been called to the pastorate of the Zion Protestant Episcopal Church, Louisville, at a salary of $1,200. He is at present State Evangelist and grew up from youth in Zion church.

—It is expected that over 13,000 delegates will attend the Christian Endeavor convention, to be held at Madison Square Garden, New York, July 7-10. By the way, has the society which flourished so well here for a while fallen into innocuous desuetude? We never hear of it meeting any more.

—Rev. W. P. Lewis, a favorite Baptist preacher of Phoenix City, Ga., is in disgrace. He was engaged to marry the daughter of his leading parishoner. The father's inquiries lead to the startling discovery that Lewis, who was born in Mississippi, had a half dozen aliases and had successfully married and abandoned three wives. The preacher skipped and did not meet his appointment.

A Little Fun With The Parson.

Andrew Wallace is one of the oldest and best known residents of this city. Many years ago he was president of the State benevolent boards. It was while he was occupying that place that he met the late Dr. McIntire, superintendent of the institution for the education of the deaf and dumb. The doctor was a strict member of the Methodist church and orthodox all the way through. Mr. Wallace was a Universalist. "Doctor," said the latter, "you are an educated man and I am not. I want to ask you a question or two. Do you really think this world we inhabit is round and revolves on its axis once in every 24 hours?"

"Certainly," replied the doctor. "And you believe there is a Heaven and another place?"

"Assuredly."

"And that Heaven is above us?"

"Yes."

"And the other place below us?"

"Yes."

"And the world turns over once every 24 hours?"

"Yes."

"Well, doctor, if that's the case, doesn't it occur to you that the spire of your meeting-house points to hades about half the time?" —Indianapolis Journal.

Mrs. Potter—Well, I wonder what kept you out all night this time?

Jack Potter—I sat up with a sick friend.

Mrs. Potter—What was his complaint?

Mr. Potter—He complained that the rest of us cheated him.—Pack

The hydraulic railroad, now daily operated in Paris, consists of four carriages or cars, each having a capacity of 25 passengers. The train runs as smoothly as a boat on water. There are no wheels, no steam, no electricity. Apparently everything moves of its own record.

—The product of gold and silver in the world for the calendar year 1891 was $124,220,000 gold and $139,175,000 silver.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Another wedding reported for next week.

—Squirrels are quite plentiful in this section now. A party of four bagged 19 Wednesday evening.

—Uncle George McKee, of color, wasn't much surprised, Tuesday morning, when another one, a boy, arrived, making the 23d addition to his family.

—The marriage I mentioned last week occurred Wednesday. It was Mrs. Mary E. Province and William Tillery, of Jackson county, who will leave in a few days for the latter's home.

—Deputy Collector C. M. Randall returned Monday from a raid in Harlan county, where he cut up three illicit stills, one on Cumberland river, one on Wallin's Creek and one on Four Mile Creek, three miles from Harlan Court House.

—Town Marshal John T. Hatcher arrested two Laurel Seminary students and an outsider named Taylor Phillips for shooting in the town limits, Monday night and the boys were fined $2 each and cost. There are others that John T. is on the lookout for and will pull the very first thing they know for the same offense and another nuisance in this temperance town will be abated.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—Married on the 16th inst., by Mr. A. J. Gibony, John Floyd, aged 16, to Miss Dollie White, aged 14. The occasion was celebrated by a charivari.

—Last Monday was quarterly court and there was the feeblest attendance ever known in the history of the place. Most of the cases were continued.

—An absence of 8 or 10 days at the bedside of a very sick daughter is your correspondent's excuse for not appearing in the INTERIOR JOURNAL last week.

—Next Monday will be county court and there will be a grand horse show. Many people are expected to be present. The half-mile track has been lately repaired and is now in fine condition.

—W. H. Wilkinson has gone to Cincinnati. George E. Stone went to Lebanon on Monday on business. Misses Exie Brown and Cora Adams, of Fishing Creek, are now on a visit to W. T. Humphreys. M. K. Humphrey is hobnobbing around on his game leg. George Frye, of Hustonville, has been sojourning among us for a week or two. Thos. Casky, the mill man from New York, is getting around again after being very ill at the Wilkinson Hotel. Oscar Wilkinson is now going about after an attack of the prevailing disease, pneumonia. Leonora F. Tarrant, of Mt. Salem, is slowly recovering after a severe attack of pneumonia.

In Memory of Mrs. J. M. Cook.

Mrs. Lucy Belle Cook died at her home near Hustonville, Ky., Wednesday, January 20, aged 53 years.

Mrs. Cook was the daughter of Carroll and America Bailey, of Lincoln county, Ky. She was married to Jas. M. Cook January 10, 1858, who, with nine children, is left to feel and mourn their great loss.

Reared as she was by most exemplary and upright parents, she imbibed their virtues of integrity and industry and became a model of refinement, excellence and purity. Now that she has been taken away from her husband, mother, children and all of earth's environments she has, by the sublimity of a pure heart and a life devoted to the supreme good of her family, ineffably impressed upon the heart of each of its members the very image of her loving presence, so that the sacred influence of her devoted life will live on as a real power, full of holy memories while life remains. Early in life she consecrated her heart and life to Christ and became a member of the Christian Church. Having received the idea that a christian profession must be real, her own life became marked by a sincerity that was transparent. Her nature was positive, her convictions of right were deep and a while courteous, respectful and gentle, no one was allowed to conjecture the state of her mind, when questions of christian morals were involved. As a wife she was sublimely true to him with whom she became one flesh, at the sacred altar of wedlock, pure as truth and devoted as woman ever was. But it was as Mother that the full-orbed splendor of her character appeared. The welfare of her children was her constant care, the object of her ceaseless toil and burden of her daily prayer. Her life was bound up in theirs and ceaseless as the stars in their courses, did her eyes watch their footsteps and her busy hands minister to their wants. Could she throw her voice back to them to-day from "that glorious land" to which she has gone, it would tell out the same changeless love; nor would her message from that land have changed from her message when here. It would be "Unto this glorious land there is but one way. Jesus Himself is that one way. Follow Him and you shall meet me here." They can but cherish her memory for her boundless love and the purity of her devoted life. May the transparent purity of that life ever be reflected in their own.
